

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 28, 1882.

A blue pencil mark (X) on your paper indicates that your subscription has not been paid for some time, and you are requested to settle at once.

Is it not time that a determined effort was being made to put a stop to the regular Saturday or Sunday shootings?

Rev. Green Clay Smith has resigned the charge of the Baptist Church in Mt. Sterling, his resignation to take effect the first of December. He will remove to Louisville and take charge of a church recently organized there.

The Sunday law sponser has about spent its force in this city. It does not usually last more than a week or two at a time. What sense is there in having such a law if it is not enforced? The police are not to blame, they have done their part faithfully.

At the recent meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge at Louisville, a resolution was adopted asking the Grand Chapter and Grand Commandery to adopt measures making a denunciation from a Blue Lodge work the same disability in those bodies, as a suspension from a lodge now does.

A scaffold, upon which were six bricklayers and a number of other laborers, at Georgetown, fell one day last week, a distance of thirty feet, and, strange to say, beyond a few bruises, the party all escaped serious injury. Col. J. V. Downing was one of the lucky ones this time.

Mr. T. J. Shepherd of Mt. Sterling has been in the city this week looking around with a view to locating a branch jewelry and watch making establishment in our midst. Mr. S. is an enterprising business man and a clever fellow, and we will gladly welcome him to our city should he decide to remain.

Elder B. B. Tyler has received and accepted a call to take charge of a Christian Church in New York City. The church building is now being erected, and when completed will cost $100,000. Elder Tyler is to receive a large salary and will take charge of the church the middle of next June. His many friends in this city will be glad to hear of his good fortune.

The usual shooting scrapes took place Saturday night. Will, Ellis and Simon Condy, both colored, got into a fight, and Ellis got Condy down and was pinning him soundly, when Bob Green, also colored, came up and struck Ellis over the head with a stick, cutting an ugly gash. Ellis went home, got his shot-gun, came back and emptied a load of No. 5 shot into Green's right side inflicting a dangerous wound.

The celebrated damage suit of Mrs. Mary Owens against Gen. J. P. Neelys came up in the Circuit Court Monday morning. Judge P. U. Major was sworn on the bench by the plaintiff, and Judge Alvin Duvall was selected as a special justice to sit in the case. A jury was empaneled and the taking of evidence was begun in the afternoon and the case continued to occupy the time of the court until Thursday when a verdict for the defendant was rendered.

The presentation of the opera of Patience by the Lexington Amateur Comic Opera Company, at Major Opera House, Saturday night, was a splendid success. The singing and acting were both far superior to that of the professional troupe, who rendered the same open in this city last winter, and many of the performers were highly esteemed. Miss Richardson, as Patience, was the simple country maiden to perfection, while Miss Dixie's Lady Angeline was splendid. Mr. J. Hull Davidson's Burthorne was very good, and Mr. Will Sayre's Grovener could not be excelled. Miss Sielebeck, as Lady Jane, was not so very massive, but filled her role exceedingly well.

Those who failed to attend missed a great treat. Should the company come again, they will have a crowded house.

Kelley's 1-hud, Ohio, March 28th 1880.
I have used Kendall's Spain Cure on a horse for several weeks now, and find it has taken the enlargement completely off. It took only one bottle to perform the entire cure.

Frankfort is fast gaining a reputation for murder and promiscuous shooting second to no mining camp in the West.

Elder Dardis and Lamon took in Taylorton this week, and were surprised at the extent of the buildings—describing the place as "meres of warehouses." &c.

The Yeoman, in its statement Thursday, "no rain for thirty days," certainly must not count the shower Wednesday night of last week.

The celebrated Woodson & Allen Minstrel Troop will appear at Major Opera House Tuesday evening next. Save your nickles and enjoy the fun.

The Hossin' ty is playing havoc with the wheat and other small grain in the eastern part of this country. Many farmers have been compelled to sow their grain a second time, while others are trusting to a hard winter and close grazing in the spring to save their crops.

Two gentlemen of the colored persuasion "mixed cast" down in "Craw," Thursday morning. It appears that Joseph Hoskins backed against the tiger at James Robinson's, and got left. He became very rankeous therent, and determined that nothing short of gore would heal his wounded "tum." The consequence was that all Craw got on its ear and made the region howl with calls for "police," etc.

Officers Rupe and Smith politely invited the colorado to the cooler, after which his honor, Judge Sned, interviewed the young gentlemen, and requested a deposit from their ducats for the benefit of the city. Hoskins being called for $10 and costs, for disturbing the peace and Robinson $100 and costs for keeping a gambling house. Not having sufficient solid wealth to meet the call or carry it, they left now graciously the stonepile at Castle Williams. We guess that their ire will have full time to subside e'er they are once more allowed to penetrate the rosy lanes of Craw.

E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

Ice formed Sunday night in the country. Too much fog in town.

Where will the shooting be to-night, in Craw, Battle Alley or on Starbell?

Officers J. M. Stephens and R. H. Gayle have been reinstated upon the police-force.

Sweet potatoes are selling at from one dollar to one dollar and twenty cents per bushel.

Elder George Darsie married four couples in two days, this week—one Tuesday and three Wednesday.

The suicidal mania is spreading in this community. Another young man attempted to drown himself Sunday.

Enforce the Sunday law strictly and see if there will not be a decrease in the number of Sunday row and shootings.

Mr. Albert G. Jeffers has purchased of Mr. John C. Nodl the place known as the old Stephens place, two miles from this city, for which he paid $7,500.

The protracted meeting at Providence Baptist Church, this county, closed on Sunday night last, with twenty-two additions, of which number fourteen were by baptism.

Mr. Frank A. Critcher, of this county, and Miss Ellen Bright, of Shelby, were married at the Christian Church in Hardinville, Wednesday afternoon, by Elder George Darsie.

Mr. Rod. Hawkins, of this county, and Miss Ruth Wright, of this city, were married Thursday evening, at the residence of Mr. John E. Miles. Elder George Darsie officiated.

There was a pitched battle Saturday night between a party of bricklayers and some mill hands, in the lower part of town, and the way Craw howled for a time was scandalous.

Mr. Sam Harris has received a large lot of used clothing, manufactured from new goods, from merchant tailors, at his second hand clothing house on St. Clair street, near the bridge.

Mr. Thos. L. DeLine, formerly of this city, but now of Kansas City, Missouri, has accepted the position of traveling salesman for the K. C. Distilling Company, the largest whisky house in the West.

Skinny Men.

"Well Health Remover" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual debility, &c.

Col. Lynch, the only white witness for the defense in the case of the Commonwealth against Walker Washington, has been rendered a handless present in the shape of a log in some admiring colored friends.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. B. S. Thompson, which occurred at his home near Great Crossings, Scott county, Wednesday afternoon. Mr. T. was the husband of Miss Florence China, formerly of this city.

Irish potatoes are retarding in this market at from thirty to fifty cents per bushel, according to the quantity desired. This time last year the price was one dollar per bushel and scarce at that. The crop is perfectly enormous, farmers raising from four to six hundred bushels per acre.

Dan Chapman, colored, was arrested Monday, on the charge of breaking into Messrs. Gray & Rodman's store and steals a lot of pistols. Three of the pistols were found in his possession. His chances for a residence in the reformatory institution over which Capt. Todd presides are very flattering.

Henry Weitzel, who shot himself in the leg last week, is improving rapidly and expects to be out in a few days.

Let the law be enforced to the letter against all offenders, without respect to person, and perhaps there will be fewer shootings to record in this city.

Judge R. E. Gaines of Belle Point, has changed the time for holding the civil term of his court from the first Wednesday to the fourth Saturday in each month.

The protest meeting at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Steamburg, is still in progress. There had been twelve additions to the church at last accounts.

Miss Bettie Stewart, eldest daughter of Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart, and Dr. Wm. L. Rodman will be married at the Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday, at 12 o'clock, M.

Mr. C. W. Finch is fitting up the room in the Mansion House block, on St. Clair street, recently occupied by Mr. Logan McKee, and will shortly open a meat store in it.

All persons who are in the habit of hunting and shooting on Fleetwood Farm are warned that the place is posted, and they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Officer Hyde has succeeded in arresting several parties who are suspected of having burglarized Gray & Rodman's store, and has recovered four or five of the stolen pistols.

The Board of Officers of the Corps of Engineers has been ordered to assemble at Cincinnati to examine and report upon the work of improvement completed, in progress and proposed for Kentucky river.

The steamer City of Frankfort now runs through from this city to Louisville, instead of stopping at Madison, Indiana. She comes up on Tuesday and Friday and returns on Wednesday and Sunday.

On Saturday night thieves entered the hog pen on the farm of Mr. A. C. Keese, near this city, and killed one of the sows and fattened hogs in it. They started to carry it off, but he left it at the gate, being evidently frightened away.

In another column will be found a call upon Messrs. R. C. Church, Lewis Mangen, and John E. Miles to become candidates for County, in the Second Ward. No better men could be found to represent that part of the city, as they reside, one in the centre, and the others in the extreme ends of the ward, and can thus know the wants of all, and are gentlemen who will look to the best interests of their constituents.

Mr. John O'Donnell, a young man well known in this city, took an overdose of morphine Wednesday morning about 11 o'clock. As soon as it was discovered that he had taken the poison medical aid was summoned and everything was done to relieve him, but to no avail. He died about three o'clock in the afternoon. He was a splendid adolescent, much beloved by his relatives and friends, and closely attached to her guardian, Mrs. Alice Lubban, who lived with her a month before her death. Her short life was a happy one, though often afflicted. Her only child, however, she caught sight of that selected only, and passed the vale of shadows.

Fannie bounded in time to bloom in eternity. The following lines are respectfully dedicated to William H. Russell.

Fannie's young face was fair with youth, Bright with promise and sweet with truth, But like a flower in the sun it faded up, Spilling its life in dust.

Gaudy and gay was life while lingered May; Too early did we lose her, God took her away.

In my garden of roses, bending low, With honey blossoms as pure as snow, Another favorite but ne'er its perfect bloom, As I sit in the quiet and sweet perfume, Spilling its life in dust.

Another favorite promise and sweet perfume, As I sit in the quiet and sweet perfume, Short while winters are coming, I cannot stay, Death breathes on our blossoms and she passed away.

I looked on a heart bowed down with woe, Bent over with pain like a bough with snow, I said "My good-bye of this mighty grief, Fetherly Father send comfort and sweet relief," Aching heart, you'll find 'twas best, some day, God loved her best so he took her away.
